EDITORIALS.

In making such elaborate preparations for the comfort of the large congregations which Billy Sunday is expected to draw, it is hoped that the committee will not forget to assign plenty of space to Jesus.

A self-styled Negro prophet of this city has sent out letters warning the country of a serious race conflict, to occur in the year 1918. He declares that God put him next to this information, but he may be mistaken.

There are a whole lot of Negroes in this city who are too proud to enter a theater through an alley or to eat in a restaurant kitchen or to patronize a white man when the same service may be had from a black man.

It is reported that several influential colored men have covertly given it out that they can, for a certain money consideration, place the vacant principalship in the Wendell Phillips school. Applicants for the position would do well to see these l. c. m. and save further worry. "It is to laugh."

Sometimes it is better to do a thing which one would prefer not to do. Saluting the flag is one of these things. It is not good to be an extremist even though the provocation may occasionally be very great. The flag means a great deal to all of us, even though its symbolism sometimes appears very far removed from our happiness and wellbeing.

Hose Company No. 11 of the Kansas City fire department, under the firm management of Captain John Todd and Lieutenant E. G. Lacy has become a distinct credit not only to the colored people but to Kansas City as well. The rowdiness, loafing and boisterous conduct that once used to prevail around these premises, have been vigorously abolished. The best of order and the finest morale pervades every department of this excellent company. These officers are to be commended for the vigorous manner with which they have conducted the affairs of this company. And they have the indorsement and approval of the best element of our people in this city.

Ebenezer Chapel and its intrepid and versatile pastor, Dr. W. C. Williams, have succeeded without the blowing of horns or the beating of symbols in establishing a musical and literary center which bids fair to rival Allen Chapel and Western University in the excellence of its musical and dramatic presentation, the rendition of Queen Esther Cantata and of Jephthah's Daughter by the members and friends of Ebenezer and the bringing of Madame Patti Brown during the season, all of which played return engagements before packed houses amply demonstrates that Ebenezer is not coming, but is here in the musical world. The Sun wishes her success in all her undertakings.

THEY SAY

—That if you are going to be ready for Easter get busy now.

—That trouble spring from idleness, so it pays to keep busy.

—That if the spring dresses get any shorter we will just have to wear "binders," that's all.

—That the name of T. R. does more to keep the world off us than any preparedness we possess.

—That "de culled brudder" am tryin' to find "what he am at" now that the election is over.

—That the average young Negro woman puts in more time trying to improve her complexion than she does improving her mind. Amen.

—That an old colored man down in Missouri died the other day and left the following remarkable will: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Amen. I have only one thing to leave and that is the earth. My wife has always wanted that, so now she can have it. Amen. That's going some, ain't it?"

—That a colored man living in the suburbs of this city married a large brunette named Lucinda. Three weeks later he appeared at the office of a lawyer, looking as if he might have been dented with flatirons and bumped into by a road roller.

"Can't stand it no longer, boss," he sadly remarked to the legal one. "I wants a divorce from dat Lucinda. Las' ting she chucked at me was de stove. Tomorrow it will be de chimney."

"That's all right, Sam," soothingly returned the lawyer, seeking to effect a reconciliation. "Everything will come out all right. Besides, you know you took Lucinda for better or for worse."

"Yes, sah," admitted Sambo. "So I did, sah; but she is a whole lot wuss dan I took her for."

The spring physical exhibition next Wednesday evening, April 19, gives promise of being the greatest attraction of the season. Grade school, High school boys, young men and older men will take part in the exhibition.

At the conclusion of the fourth sitting of the championship checker match, the scores stand Pepp 6, Headley 5. Five draws have been played. This match is exciting a great deal of interest among the checker fans.

Dr. W. W. Matthews of the A. M. E. Zion church addresses the men's meeting Sunday at 3:30 p. m. Dr. Matthews, who is from the Pacific coast, has had considerable contact with the association work of that section and will bring an eloquent message to them. Subject, "The Whole Man."

Two banquets are scheduled at the Y. M. C. A. in the near future. One Monday, in honor of A. V. Pepp, the champion cross board checker player, given by the checker players of the city. The other Saturday in honor of W. C. Hueston by the Republican leaders.

A personal check for $62 from Mr. A. Frank Neal, paying his pledge of $60 in full, a subscription to Association Men and a cash pledge of $1 from Mr. George Conn was received this week from Salt Lake City. Also two other pledges from Wm. Guln and Ben F. Parker, men in his employ. Mr. Neal is undoubtedly one of the most earnest, loyal and consistent Y. M. C. A. members and boosters in the country.

MUST HAVE BEEN FILLED UP

And Yet Receipts Were Just an Ordinary Handbag Same as They All Carry.

"You say that you left your small handbag on the train, madam," said the polite young man at the counter in the department of the railroad station in which articles left on trains were to be found, if found at all, writes Morris Wade in Judge. "Will you please describe the bag and its contents?"

"Well, it was a small handbag of black glazed leather about seven or eight inches long and five or six inches wide. I am not sure that I can describe all of the contents, but I know that there was in the bag a handkerchief with a narrow lace edge, a couple of matinee tickets, three samples of ribbon, a sample of taffeta silk, pale blue; a door key and two little keys; a laundry list, a pair of white kid gloves, a receipt for a skirt I had left to be dyed, two spoons of thread, a card of hooks and eyes, a newspaper recipe for a fruit salad, a little newspaper poem I had taken a fancy to, a small ball of darning cotton, a yard and a half of Hamburg insertion, a manicure brush, a hat pin, 20 trading stamps, a card of tiny pearl buttons, a shoe buttonhook, a little bottle of smelling salts and a bottle of camphor tablets. Yes, and a little pearl and gold vanity box and a short lead pencil and a shopping list and a little silver glove button and a part of a paper of pins and a calendar printed on a little celluloid card—and it seems to me that was about all. As I say, it was a very small bag and I think I have named the greater part of its contents."

"The greater part of its contents," said the clerk as he went to look up the bag. "Geewhizz! If she could put all that into a five by seven-inch handbag, she could put the contents of a seven-room flat into a suitcase."

Glare of Light Painful to Many.
Persons who shrink from the glare of light, as distinguished from those who shrink from light itself, suffer from what Dr. Ernest Clarke calls photophobia. It is due to deficiency in the pigment of the retina and is especially marked in albinos. Sir William Crookes has recently invented a glass that cuts off the infra-red as well as the ultra-violet rays which cause the trouble. The Medical Record says that anyone with a tendency to shrink from the glare should be careful to shade his eyes with a suitable cap, should work or read with well shaded lights; his desk should never face a window and his apartment should be decorated in cool neutral tints, dull sage-green being the best.
